

POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION KNOWLEDGE ASSESSMENT

1. At 18 years old, I will need my parent's assistance to go to college.
 - True - Unless the student meets certain criteria set by the federal government, he or she will need parent info until 25 years old.
 - False
2. Trade/Technical schools offer the same classes and courses as colleges and universities.
 - True
 - False – Trade/Technical school offer mostly certificates and not degrees as such the classes and courses are different.
3. Learning styles are not important as long as a student can read the books and take notes in college.
 - True
 - False – Learning styles help students to understand how he or she comprehends and retains information.
4. Colleges and universities have the same learning environment as high schools.
 - True
 - False – College classes can vary and the instructor may not respond to questions in-class.
5. Sororities are not the same as fraternities.
 - True - Typically, fraternities are for males and sororities are for females.
 - False
6. Student loans are not financial aid.
 - True
 - False – There are three types of financial aid, student loans, scholarships, and grants.
7. I cannot use the same high school study skills in college.
 - True - College requires more intense study skills because the student is more responsible for their learning.
 - False
8. If I do not like a college class, I can just stop attending.
 - True
 - False – Students need to formally withdraw from a class or they may owe money for the class
9. College students are paid to participate in the college work study program.
 - True
 - False – Students can earn money by working 20 hours per week in the college work study program. They are not automatically paid to participate.
10. Living on a college campus is the same as living at home with my family.
 - True
 - False – Students have to learn to live with individuals with different personality that do not have a personal relationship with the student which can make it different from living with family.